NAMES.

A.

G. Κυανος

L. Cyanus minor.

I. Fior campese.

G. Korn - blume.

F. Barbeau, Bluet-
Fleur.

S. Coronilla
Yerba.

D. Blaauwe
Koren-blom.

CORN BLUE BOTTLE.

PLACE.

In Corn-Fields.

DESCRIPTION.

The Roots of these Plants are woody, having many Fibres ribb'd, of a pale whitish green. The Leaves near the Ground are de Stalks the Form alters, and are without those Cuts. The Colour of th is bluer than a Willow, with a Cottony Matter that covers them, but n of the Leaves. The Flower-Buds 2-2, are Scaly, of a pale green, and ish Points. 3. is a Flower opening; 4 shews one full blown whose F Trumpet 5, cut in with many deep Gashes, and are of a beautiful blu Flower-Cup, with the Styles and Tops of the Florets; 7. is one cut the Seeds as Roots to the Florets appear; 8-8, are two Florets; 9 Florets are a rich deep blue, with Styles rising out of the Middl on the Top a white Spangling Farina.

VIRTUES.

The distill'd Water of the Flowers is sometimes used for inflamed a

T. Sheldrake delin.